3 Fisher St, Petersham

A Versatile Property Package With Size And Potential

On offer is this exceptional opportunity for buyers or investors to secure a substantial Victorian-era property in the heart of the inner west and capitalise on its many possibilities.

Occupying an extra-wide fronted 316sqm land parcel, this single-storey home has an attractive original façade, many retained period details and presents a unique prospect with a big future.

It is currently configured as a nine-room boarding house with potential income of $108,000 earning scope, but makes a great value-add project with potential to upgrade, extend or transform into a superb family
